Concluding Perspective

Session introduction by Kona

Kona: Hi, good morning. I'm Kona Lisa Mahu. I'm here with the Center for Planetary Management. Myself, I'm in New York, U.S. A. We have with us Jacques from France, Evan in the Philippines, Juan in Venezuela, and Bob also in Texas, U.S. A. We've done our morning check-in and bonding, very brief. We have a good bit to talk about. We're excited about that, but now it's time for our meditation to quiet our mind and settle our spirits and let go of the daily things that lead us into the grind, so to speak. So, Jacques, please take it away.

Centering moment as a Team by Jacques

Jacques: Thank you, Kona. Okay, so, my Friend, yes, it's just time to relax, to quiet our mind. To relax our body and to connect with the universe. We were told that we can get this universal light and love within us, and spread it around us, like a light house.

So, let's receive this beam of light from the center of the universe to your crown chakra, through all your chakras down to the earth. Receive this light and radiate this light all around you. Because you are a cosmic citizen, there is no separation in the universe, we are always connected with the universe. But it is our will to do so.

Now it is time to gather together to encircuit ourselves together, starting by our heart line, clockwise around the globe, collecting those who are missing today busy with other things, but still part of the team. And we connect our mind line counter-clockwise. So, as human, we are encircled.

And we ask our Celestial Friends from above, the Planetary Management Team. Machiventa, Sondjah, Asiah, and any other Beings who want to join us. We know that some of our Celestial Friends come to us from the Sea of Glass, a very nice place which we want to visit one day. And we also want to have our Stellar Friends with us today. You stay in this state for 3 minutes.

Opening Prayer by Juan

Juan: Beloved Heavenly Father, beloved Divine Father and our Friends of Planetary Management, we are here gathered today again, to give thanks, to be grateful for all the guidance you have given us up to this moment.

We hope to contribute with our meeting, so that our way may be paved (prepared) for the arrival of the days of light and life. Thank you, Father, Amen.

Kona

Thank you so much, Juan.

Jacques: Thank you, Juan, for your prayer and for reminding our Celestial Friends how deeply grateful we are to be together as a team and to share this time with them today. Now, Let's see if we have a message, either from Evan or from Kona.

Kona: Evan, do you perceive any message on your side? You're muted.

Evan: Yes, I do have a message.

Main Addresses with Avalah Melchizedek

1. Revealing the Celestial Presence: A Message of Hope and Healing

Avalah: So, good morning, Team, good morning, good afternoon, and good evening, too in different parts of the world. This is your teacher, Avalah [Melchizedek], and I'm here too. I get acquainted with this one, as this is the first time that she is transmitting me. And she has no recollection of my messages which is good, because I'm here to have a clean slate for all of you.

As for my message, it is simply to give you the encouragement again that you need as you continue work, our co-creative work for your magazine. This is very important work that you do for the rest of your fellows in the world, for the rest of humanity.

As you know, I am a Melchizedek and Melchizedeks are at the forefront of teachers in the universe, as your celestial team, and we are always with you when you have questions that you have in your mind.

But I have a particular request today, or message for your team. And this is in relation to the introductions that we were asking you to do at the last meeting: for you to be able to introduce: Who these Celestials are? And there are so many.

So, it will take rather sometime to bring them, bring everyone in the world up to speed, so to speak. And that starts from way back in the Teaching Mission. When we started to contact people and people were starting to be receptive to messages. And it was a great wonder then, and still it is a great wonder today how these things happen. But it does, and you're very well aware of it.

And so, we are now beginning to reveal knowledge that is still largely unknown to human beings who are unaware of our presence: And, we have a plan, and we are here to help your world. And especially in the healing part of your world, as you all know. There are so many places that are indeed [in] dark distress. So, this is where your work is really, [toward] these dark places, these dark regions. And we will help you do that.

And do not fear and do not worry about what you will say; what is your next article's message will be? Because we have a lot to say to the world. Thank you so much, and good day.

Jacques: Thank you, Avalah. It's nice to hear from you. We are not familiar with your voice, because we know your name through Daniel Raphael. We know the Melchizedeks are working very hard to teach to this planet, and we know that you are our teachers, and we consider we are part of your team. So, thank you for your message for today. Any question to Avalah?

2. Introducing the Celestial Teachers and Opening the Door to Communication

Kona: I have simply an acknowledgement, and I'm not sure if it'll turn into a question, but in our meditation, I was getting a same or similar message that our focus needs to be on the Celestials, and we need to have a conversation about, you know, which Celestial we're going to present, and I've been reading about Machiventa in the Urantia Book (Paper 93).

So, I just wanted to say to Avalah, thank you for confirming that through somebody else besides myself, because Evan and I haven't spoken to each other or emailed for those who may be watching at a later time. We don't communicate always between, so I have no idea what message she's gonna get or from whom. So, I really appreciate that confirmation [from Avalah], you know, for what was stirring in my own heart and mind.

I think if my question for Avalah would be: What aspects of the Celestials you would like us to communicate? Who you are? you know, your name, how you operate? Could you give us an idea of what are the things that you would like for humanity to know about those of you that we do communicate with? That's my question, thank you.

Avalah; Yes. Thank you for your question. I suppose you have to do some research about each celestial when they first came into view in your world because this goes way back to the mid 80s when we started to communicate, during that time, and there were more people involved in these meetings. And it just started to expand, and there were so many celestials coming in as teachers at that time.

There are so many names, including Midwayer Chief, Bzutu (ABC-22) as well as Athena [a Celestial Artisan] and many others. And then there were teachers such as Thomas, who remained in contact with Daniel throughout the first twenty years.

And then after that there were other people involved. As years come and go, there will be more teachers, but they're always around. There are many, many who have volunteered. So, it doesn't mean that you have to list them all, but as it comes to your mind. And your Thought Adjuster will assist you, and who, each of you are particularly inclined to receive communication from them. So, it can be any Spiritual Advisor, or Celestial that is closer to your mind and heart. So, don't worry about who these Celestials are because they need to come forward to present themselves to people who are going to be stepping up and introducing themselves and telling us that they really would like to communicate [with Celestials], because that has to come from them. It has to come from the individual itself. They need to clearly state their intention: "I truly want to make contact with you [the Celestials]." This sincere intention is essential for establishing spiritual communication. Thank you for your question.

Kona: Thank you so much for answering that. Go ahead, Jacques.

3. Beginning with the Fifth Epochal Revelation

Jacques: I understand, Avalah [what you were saying]. We start by the Teaching Mission when it started in the year 80s, but my question is: Do we need also to start explaining to humanity that long ago this planet was seeded with life? Then we had a Planetary Management on Earth, 500,000 years ago. Then we have a rebellion that affects a lot of us, even these days. Then we had the arrival of Jesus, and Machiventa, of course, before Jesus.

And then you came in mass, let's say in the 80s, to deliver messages. How do we start?

Avalah: Your question seems to have some reference to how you were going to be able to give some background of how celestials affected or somehow influenced global events in your world. This is not necessary.

What you need to do is just probably refer them to the Urantia book because that is where it all began. I think that has ready reference, or in your website, the CPM. And maybe in your Substack [Planetary Pulse].

But it's always good to have a new, a refreshed article that would always refer to the start of this fifth epochal revelation. Because that is a major milestone in your world, and in the world's affairs. This is the start of a very different kind of information giving. But now you have technology. And this will be very, very quickly done in terms of how you get them up to speed.

It's just a matter of giving them the additional information. There is AI now, they can always dig that up. There's a lot of ways to get information if people really wanted information. Thank you for your question.

Jacques: Thank you, Avalah, for your answer. It gives us some guidance how to proceed, thank you for that.

Jacques

Any other question? While we have Avalah.

Kona: I had a question, but Juan also does have a question, and it's a great question.

4. Bringing Light and Guidance to a Troubled World

Kona: Juan posted in this chat this question: "Lately, we've received messages from various Melchizedeks, and I'd like you to tell us about the Melchizedek School."

Is this an appropriate time to find out more about the Melchizedek School, or should we be focusing on this other topic?

Avalah: Thank you for your question. The question is centered on what your topics should be for your magazine. And as we have said before, you have your theme for the next issue or publication, and that would be how humanity becomes, or how humanity is becoming. And that itself is a huge and broad subject matter and there are so many paths to it.

To take up the Melchizedeks as a school and as teachers perhaps should be taken up in some other future issues. What is important today is that people need to know how they can navigate, or go through the events that are very, very dark and troubling today. It will get worse, and it will not get better. So, people are asking, people are afraid, and this is where your focus should be. The darkness that you need to dispel with your light. This is the main objective of our work also here in your world. Thank you.

5. Discerning Celestial Guidance from Spirit Communication

Kona: Thank you, Avalah, for that. I do have a follow-up question because it's been made clear to us through Daniel's transmissions with both Machiventa and Sondjah to make a very clear statement, which we did in the magazine. We're not associated with the occult or cults. And so, in my learning, there was a way, and there is a way, to request a discernment of spirits.

And so, could you speak to how we can help people to understand the discerning of the message from the messenger that they might be hearing. In other words, help people to distinguish, yes, we become like a radio, a transmission. We can receive a message, but it's important for us to be in alignment with Christ Michael in order to only receive messages from those who are in the celestial, as opposed to those who are deceased, previously mortal beings, than maybe from the dead, which is a difference between listening to the occult, or seance, and listening and communicating with a celestial who's never materialized. Could you speak to that, please?

Avalah: I think your question is, how do you discern?

Kona: Yes.

Avalah: The Spirits that you communicate with... The spirits that are Celestials that have been coming through the Teaching Mission, and the Magisterial Mission and the Correcting Time are mostly beings from mortal worlds, or Midwayers or Angels and other [Celestial] Sons. Like, the Avonal Sons and different species or Beings within the hierarchy that you know, if you have read the Urantia book there are many of them.

They have come many times, to speak with different personalities in your world. Never has it been that there was an occasion where a diseased person came in or came through. And the message is always clear in the teaching mission. The message was always trying to project, trying to teach, trying to explain what Jesus came for, what was his mission, what was the way that he was trying to show people what the Kingdom of God is.

So, stick to the basics, and with that, you will have a clear understanding; although, it is a very broad and very deep subject. The universe is a multifaceted place. Just be sure you know the basics, and you know which way what went. Is that something that is clear?

Kona: Yes, it is, certainly, and we do have the Urantia book as a reference, so thank you, Avalah, for that, and you did make clear, never has it been a deceased mortal that's trying to come through within the Teaching Mission, and that's the clarity that I think our audience needs to understand is that we are dealing with Celestial Beings who are on the divine side, and what that means, and we can develop that with the team. So, thank you again for being with us today. Thank you, Evan, for transmitting. Jacques, I'll turn it back over to you.

Jacques: Well, thank you. It was nice to hear from you, Avalah. Knowing that there is a multitude of Melchizedeks around trying to teach to us because we are very difficult to teach, we know that. People are listening, but they are so busy with this material world. So, it's great to have this lesson with you.

And when we look back at our history, this team history, I mean with all of us, starting long ago, to read Urantia books, or to search what is all about this planet. And we are here today not by chance, but because we have worked hard. Even if it's still difficult for us sometimes, I say, wow, we are with you and those on Sea of Glass are looking at us. Wow, that's so grateful, so wonderful for us to be part of this Teaching Mission and preparing the Magisterial Mission for Monjoronson to come. Thank you, Avalah.

Kona: Thank you again, Evan. Thank you, Avalah. Thank you, Jacques, for facilitating through our meditation and our TR session. I appreciate that.

So, let's take just a few minutes and reflect on the message. Give Evan a chance to regroup after a TR. I know sometimes it takes me a few minutes. It can be quite a powerful experience.
