CPM Summary – Part 2

Session introduction by Kona

Kona: Hi, good morning! I'm Kona Mahu with the Center for Planetary Management. It is September 24th, 2026, and I am here with Juan in Venezuela, Evan in the Philippines, Bob in Texas, and myself in New York, Jacques is away in Spain with his beloved. I hope wherever you are in the world, I hope that you, today, your day, are also having a beautiful moment in time. We are headed into our meditation before we get started with our meeting. So, this is a time that we just take to clear our minds. We've already had our check-in, checked in around the world, what's happening in our respective countries and localities, weather reports, family reports.

Centering moment as a Team by Kona

And now it's time to let all of that go and make room for connecting with each other and connecting with our Celestial Planetary Team. And also, if we have a message through our TR today, who is Evan. So, just sit back in your seats and relax, just get comfortable, start noticing your breath. You can close your eyes if you choose. Just notice your breath, notice how you feel in your chair. Relax your shoulders, take a couple of deep cleansing breaths and exhale everything you might be holding onto in this moment.

We write about stillness and the importance in getting grounded. We practice the same stillness to get grounded together. Breathe in… Exhale and let your mind quiet. We change our vibrations when we do this so, we're closer to our higher selves and spirit. We're closer to our guardians, our guides, our thought adjuster.

Another big, deep breath in and out and as our vibrations resonate at this different frequency. We can tune in to what might be happening on the other side of the veil. That can help us in humanity becoming, connect to our inner selves, find our best selves on this pathway.

We'll sit here for 3 minutes in silence, and then Juan will offer us a gratitude or a blessing.

Opening Prayer by Juan

Juan: Beloved Father, we thank You for placing within our hearts the desire to help this team and to support one another. As a group, we form a coalition dedicated to fostering the arrival of the Days of Light and Life.

Thank You, beloved Divine Father. Thank You, Mother Nebadonia and Father Michael, and thank You to all the Spirits who guide us daily as we work to achieve this group's objective. Thank you, Father.

Kona: Thank you, Juan, and now, Evan, if you perceive a transmission, please go ahead.

Main Addresses with Machiventa

1. Answering the Call: Co-Creating the Path Toward Light and Life

Evan: Okay, I have something from Machiventa.

Machiventa: Good evening to you, my Teammates. I'm here to greet you and to be with you in this very precise hour, when your team gathers together to be the light of the world and to do the will of God. We here in the Sea of Glass are very appreciative of what you are doing, the work that you do, as you strive to go about your daily lives that are filled with anxiety, fear and all kinds of troubles.

And yet you go out there and seek, seek to do His will, and we are very, very grateful [for that]. And we know how much effort you do. But you are our workers and you have fulfilled many of our callings and teachings. You have answered the call, you have stepped-up and said, I will do it Father. I want to do what you want me to do. I will do what your will is.

And as you go about your lives, you're seeing your bodies are not really that physically great or physically able. Sometimes you have aches and pains and headaches and all kinds of physical deficiencies, and yet go and drink your coffee, and you're okay. And you go out there speeding with your vehicle, your body, looking at the world, looking at all kinds of avenues and streets and pathways and see where it will take you, where your Will will take you. Because your Will belongs to the Father, and there are only values that you seek to understand and learn. And so, you see where there is inequality, and you seek to find equality. You see where there is no growth and you find out, where is the path to growth? And you see that the quality of life in this planet is not good quality, and you find yourselves asking, what can I do to make better this quality of life that we have in Urantia?

And therefore, this is your life; this is your calling; this is your true mission. And you are very brave, so to accept this mission with us and co-create your world with us. So, this is where you are my dear Friends, my Colleagues, my Brethren. I wish you all well in your lives. Do not look at the prospects, or where or what others will say, or whatever others will do. As long as you're doing the Will of God, you're on your way to being Finaliters, and your ascension career is going to be successful, and ride along the path that you have chosen.

Thank you so much for all your good work continue to do your good work. Listen to your Thought Adjuster, listen to your Guides, to Christ Michael and Mother's Spirit, and all our Team here from the Sea of Glass.

My blessings to all of you. We love you, and we thank you. Thank you.

Kona: Thank you, Evan. Thank you, Machiventa. We always appreciate getting a good word of encouragement from our Celestial Team. They understand the challenges here on the planet and yet, we do persevere. We keep on meeting every Mondays and Thursdays now, here we are again. So, thank you, Evan, for being open to that message from Machiventa.

Group: Thank you Machiventa, thank you Evan.
