Session introduction by Kona

Kona: Hi, good morning. I'm Kona Lisa Mahu. It is morning in my part of the world, afternoon and evening in other parts of the world. It's October 1st, 2026, this year is flying by. I'm here with Jacques in France, Evan in the Philippines, Bob in Texas, and I'm in New York, USA. Juan is not with us today like some of our other members of course. The time zone doesn't allow them to meet with us, but they are encircled with us always and communicate with us through email and other channels.

We have done our morning check-in, our daily check-in when we meet to kind of reconnect and bond. It helps our bonding part of the design team process. And now it's time to settle in and do our meditation. And as we have posted in so much of our material, this meditation time is extremely important for clearing the world out of our hearts, spirits, and minds, setting it down, reconnecting with spirit and each other, and our celestial team, so that we can raise our vibration into a higher, more positive, elevated space and do good in the world. So, we invite you to join us. Jacques, take it away.

Friday Team - Session Thursday 01st Oct 2026

Centering moment as a Team by Jacques

Jacques: Thank you, Kona. Yes, meditation is an important step. I read this morning that what is most important is in the now moment. Don't dream about the past, don't dream about the future, stay “in the NOW moment” it is where you can create.

Let’s connect today before we create. So, just relax on your seat and make you comfortable. Breath in and out slowly. Connect with the universe, with this beam of light coming from the Paradise Center to your crown chakra, through all your chakras down to the earth. You are connected to the universe via this light is a healing light.

As human, we connect together, as usual, started by our heart line clockwise around the globe, collecting those who cannot join today. And we connect that with our mindal line counter-clockwise around the globe. So as human, we are encircuited, as one mind, one soul.

And it is time to welcome our Planetary Management Team from above: Machiventa Melchizedek, Sondjah, Ashti, sRah. We ask also the Midwayers, because we start here at 16:16, so we know they are always around, helping us. We want to also receive the guidance of from our Celestial Friends from the Sea of Glass as well as our Stellar Friends who are always watching at us. We stay silence for three minutes.

Opening Prayer by Bob

Bob: Dear Father as we come before you in the small group this morning, we ask that your Spirit be with us, with each one of us. Please guide and direct us in those things we're about to talk about and express with each other in developing this magazine, and also developing our relationship with you, Father.

We also ask that Michael and Nebadonia be with us as well to help to oversee our work with Machiventa and Monjoronson and others that are dedicated to the work of Christ Michael's Correcting Time. We also ask that they be with this as well, to give us instructions and guidance. We appreciate all that you've done for us, and we thank you for what you've helped us with. We appreciate that you're still being with us all the time and being such a Guide in our lives.

It is in these perilous times that we need to be a beacon of hope and guidance to others. We know that you are here with us, each and every one of us to lead us into a life that is full of promise and hope. You know, we have such life available, life available to each one of us. May we be able to serve thee and serve one another. We say these things in the name of thy Son Christ Michael known as Christ Jesus. Amen.

Jacques: Amen. Thank you, Bob. I love when you said: that we are here to give hope to others and to bring light around us. This is important. Thank you for that, my friend. And now I turn to Kona or Evan, because you are both TRs. It is a privilege, but also, it's a difficulty to stay tune to receive a celestial message.

So, let's see if you have a connection. Is there is someone from the celestial team having a message for us today? We are listening…

Evan: Yes, I'd like to… Great, it's Michael of Nebadon, hold on for a moment.

Main Addresses with Christ Michael

1. Michael's Call to Share the Love That Heals the World

Michael of Nebadon: Yes, my dear Friends, my Brothers, my Sisters, my Family. It is Michael. You know me as the Creator Son of your universe of Nebadon. I just wish to tell you how how marvelous I feel that I have a Team here whose minds and hearts are with me and Mother's Spirit. And you're my children, and you have a bait, every little thing that your Thought Adjuster has sent to you. Which I thank you, and you have used your beautiful minds and hearts to seek the truth, "My Truth".

So, there's a Father's truth to continue this work that we do for all of humanity, for all of Urantia, for your brothers and sisters here in this world that is being ripped apart by too much anxiety and fear. Fear is what really makes the world move. But so long as fear is here… nothing really moves. Make them see the light and the love of God. These are the things that you are capable of feeling and experiencing yourselves in your lives. Show them to your brothers and sisters, who are not deceptive to their own God's spark within. Make them feel the love of God as you feel the love of God. This is the love that will save the world, and will heal every little bit of whatever it is that makes people fear away from their Creator

I thank you so much for your diligence and your effort. I want you to know that I'm always with you, although I'm not always present as Machiventa and his Melchizedek's [Team] are always here to help you and guide you in your very magnificent I can see. And I wish you all well and good day.

Jacques: Thank you, Michael. It's always important for us to receive messages from you and Nebadonia because when we think of you, Michael, we always associate Nebadonia. Thank you for the message you gave us; thank you so much. We are blessed, very, very blessed. Thank you.

Kona: Thank you, Christ Michael, and also thank you Evan.

Kona: It is always a powerful presence. So usually when I transmit to Christ Michael, I have to take a big break. Evan, so if you need to take a break, understandably so.

I also perceive that we have Ashti and Sondjah with us today. So, I'll try to pull myself together after that message from Christ Michael, which is very meaningful. One moment.

Main Addresses with Ashti Melchizedek

2. You are a Light to the Universe: Ashti's Admiration for Human Perseverance

Ashti: Good morning, my friends. This is Ashti, and I am so happy to be with you again, especially in the presence of Christ Michael, our Creator Son for this universe, this wonderful universe of Nebadon. I simply wanted to come and give you greetings again and demonstrate my admiration for your perseverance under the circumstances in which you all operate as mortals upon this crazy little beautiful planet that you have.

You love it so much, and it's quite odd for some of us to understand how much you love your planet and love your people, even under the dire circumstances in which you all live. And so, this is an example, it is a light even to some of us in the universe to watch you. It is quite magnificent for us to watch you demonstrate so much love to your fellow humans that give you so much grief and have so much patience and kindness towards others.

That in some planets would have no opportunity to be sustained because of their social inability to interact properly with their fellows on those planets or in those systems. Many of our planets who have gone into the Era of Light and Life have been through some challenging times, but they were not beset with the rebellion and the challenges that you have. And so, it is remarkable to many of us that you have sustained, how you have lived for so long. And I just wanted to express our admiration to you for your way of doing this, your strength in Christ Michael and Mother Nebadonia that sustains you, your ability to see beyond your circumstances and to continue on when so many others have chosen not to.

This is a tremendous example to us here on the Sea of Glass, who watch diligently as you proceed through your many challenges in your respective countries, and we give you our gratitude and our blessing. Thank you so much.

Jacques: Thank you, Ashti, thank you, Kona. Yes, we are living on a very difficult world, all of us here. On this meeting today, living in different countries, we can see the difficulties all around. When we see hope one day, the day after we see it's a disaster. But we trust, we really trust the mission we have been given. We trust that we will one day show the way to future generations. So, we stand here with you. We have gratitude with you for your words for Christ Michael words and we feel your love. for us and those on Sea of Glass. Thank you for that.

Evan: Thank you

Jacques: Kona do you have another message from Sondjah?

Kona: This is Kona, I'll give Sondjah a minute here in a minute as I recover because, too much emotion…

3. Old Souls and New Souls: The Father's Image Within Every Soul

This is a Follow up of Monjoronson on the question of old soul vs new soul as a question from Juan

Teacher: Monjoronson
Received by: T/R Evan Mariano
Date: Oct. 1, 2026, 9:30pm Manila Time

Juan: Have asked during the last session (dated Sept 28th, 2026): What is the difference between Old Soul vs new Soul?

Monjoronson: This is Monjoronson. I am returning to respond to the question of Juan about the difference between an old and new soul. There is a distinct difference my brother in that the old soul like myself, if you will, is around a billion years old….yet I am considered a young soul in the universe.

Why and how did that happen? There are essentially no big architectural distinction or ultra-physical or meta-physical difference – souls are just that – souls all in the making of and likeness of the Father or Creator. Whether we proceed directly from the First Source and Center or whether one is created from the downward or lower Sons of Gods that have powers of creative functions it doesn't matter. All souls are new in the image of the Father that doesn't change.

All things pass and souls do not. They only pass or pass-out if they choose to exit the material and or morontial world. There is the end of one's existence. But there is no new existence or new soul experience except when one's TA creates the soul out of the moral decision of the mind, the mind is the mother, and the TA is the Father.

The child soul is the soul of that individuation of the Father-Creator. I hope this explains somewhat the origins or beginning of what you term the soul. The soul is also complete with personality and consciousness – it has these dimensions in its being – just as any universe being has different components of its kind. Thank you for your question, Juan. Good day to all!

4. Doing Remarkably Well Under the Circumstances

Kona: Okay. I don't… you know… We try so hard to just keep on going under the circumstances and like, you know, Bob shared in his check-in, you know, where we are three steps away from nuclear disaster in some countries, and perpetual war, and… you know, "very few humans in power", quote-unquote, seem to want to make a difference, and yet um, you know, we see it every day, and we see it with each other, that there is compassion in the world, there is love in the world, there is hope in the world. And, you know, we're in our bubble on Urantia, but for it to be that remarkable.

I mean, we're one of 37 planets that were part of the rebellion out of how many billions of planets? So, when we think about it from that bigger perspective, I can imagine it is quite remarkable from a celestial perspective that they are watching diligently. But, it's great to step back, you know, as if we were astronauts, to step back and have this moment of going, yeah, it's a mess, and we're doing okay. We're doing okay under the circumstances. It's a mess, so yes, my gratitude to Ashti for that, for that message. And just a reminder that it is a mess, and we're doing remarkably well under the circumstances, even when it's hard. Like, today is a hard day.

Evan: I think every day it is a hard day on this planet under one form or another. But, you know, we have that faith, that belief that they got our backs, our, these Celestial guys, our divine parents, they are on our back, so we just have the best backup. So that doesn't worry me too much about what happens in the world. Because if you have that much faith in the love of God, you just have to stick to it. And let the world go boom.

Kona: Yeah, what's the worst that's going to happen? We have an early entrance to our Ascension career, right?

Evan: Yes.

Kona: What's the worst? The worst is going to be on the Morontial Realm, here we go. Resurrection Halls, hello we are here!

Jacques: You know, the worst would be for us to say after our death on this planet: Oh… If I have known…we would have done differently. Because, you know, many people passing away, they often say: Oh, if I had known … I'd have known. That is the worst case.

Kona: Right. Right. Alright, let's see if Sondjah has a word for us, too. I just got the words: No, not at the moment. Okay, so Sondjah is gonna let us rest with this message from Ashti for now, and maybe we'll check in again before the end of our meeting to see if Sonjah has closing words.

End Part 1
