Session introduction by Kona

Kona: 16:36:30
Hi, good day. I'm Kona Mahu. I'm here with the Center for Planetary Management. It is October 5th, 2026. We are headed into our meditation, our grounding practice. We've already had a lengthy check-in, which we'll probably use at some point in the future to write articles for sustainable living.

It's always fun when we have those, but now it's time to settle our minds, settle into our seats, and go into our stillness practice in order to better connect with each other's spirit, soul, and mind, and also to our celestial friends. So, Jacques, as you always do, please take it away and lead us there.

Centering moment as a Team by Jacques

Jacques:16:37:07
Thank you, Kona. So, yes, we had lengthy discussion about foods and many others subjects and now it is time to relax our body and our mind. Connect to the center of the universe to receive this golden cord of light to our crown chakra, down through all your chakras down to the earth, so that we can elevate our frequency, elevate our consciousness to be closer and closer to the celestials to better receive messages.

And as human, we connect together as one, started by our heart line clockwise around the globe, collecting those who are missing today, and we connect our mind line counter-clockwise around the globe, so that as human, we are encircuited as one mind, one soul, one heart.

It is time to ask our Celestial Friends from the Celestial Planetary Management Team from above to connect with us: Machiventa Melchizedek, Sondjah, Asiah, Ashti, any of the Beings who want to join today. We always consider those on the Sea of Glass looking at this, looking at our work and encouraging us, as well as our Stellar Friends like the Pleiadians who give us some beautiful messages through other channeling.

And we stay in this state for 3 minutes in silence.

Opening Prayer by Bob

Juan: Beloved Celestial Father, we give you thanks for giving us the opportunity to gather again and make ourselves available to listen to any guidance that comes from the Celestial Kingdom for the betterment of humanity. Thank you for giving us life. Thank you for giving us all the opportunities to grow, thank you for everything, Father. Amen.

Jacques:16:43:19
Thank you, Juan. Yes, the possibility to grow is finally the important subject: growth through experience, sharing, and relationship. This is what we are doing here with this group. We have a very human relationship, but we are also very conscious of the human-celestial relationship. And maybe today we will receive a message from one of them, if they wish so, I leave it to you.

Kona16:44:03
I'm still trying to perceive. Sondjah always says, I'm always here with you if you'd like a message. And so, yes, Sondjah, if you have a message for us, we will receive one. Thank you.

Main Addresses with Sondjah

1. Your Light Ripples Far Beyond What You Can See

Sondjah:16:44:21
Good morning, Dear Friends, this is Sondjah. Always happy to be with you and to check in on the progress for which you are doing with your magazine and even in just your daily lives, the work that you do to sustain yourselves, your community, and your families. It is not always just about the work that you are doing here as the Center for Planetary Management, but you do have much work that you do day in and day out in just being a human being, and so it is that we also watch with great interest.

The things that you do in your daily lives, your interactions, and how you manifest the 7 core values in all of your interactions, your personal relationships, and in your communities, and how you interact with other people in your neighborhoods and things like that. So, we do watch with great interest, all aspects of your life, not just here.

So, thank you for your diligence and efforts in trying to manifest the light of Christ Michael throughout your daily lives in the places that you go. And Jacques you have mentioned many times, how do we share this message with others, and we see that you very carefully set those intentions when you are in public places, and yes, your light ripples forward into other people's lives and because you cannot see the benefit we would like to share with you that yes it does have a benefit for those that you encounter and specifically in the places that you go to visit even on your vacations. So, be assured that your work, as you would like to call it, is extended far beyond this gathering, and we acknowledge that and appreciate that on your behalf.

Every little thing that you do as you are experiencing, when you see other people with similar messages to that which we have given you, you are noticing the change in the planet and the consciousness of humanity around you. Many of you have named that you are seeing these things, and even this one noticed in the service at the university that was quite related to the work that you are doing.

They have the same or similar message, and so you can see that the message is expanding, and the celestials that are working on your planet have been quite busy to progress this Correcting Time message and Teaching Mission of Christ Michael, and it is becoming more apparent and more obvious. So, even if you have a small response that you are aware of, your ripple effect is quite large, much larger than you could possibly imagine.

So please continue with your mindfulness, your thoughtfulness, in all of the spaces that you go to in your conversations and your relationships. And just remember that we are continuing to encourage you because you may not, in fact, see the result of that interaction, but we do, and it is felt far beyond that moment in time. Thank you so much for your attention to this. This is my message for today. I will take questions if you have any, but I think that you have plenty more to discuss among yourselves. Thank you.

Group Dialogue & Discussion with Sondjah

Jacques:16:48:33
Thank you, Sondjah Juan, you're muted. Do you have a question for Sondjah?

Juan: No, thank you very much.

2. Beyond Temporary Inspiration: Helping People Find Their Own Inner Light

Jacques: Okay, well, Sondjah, thank you for what you said for me personally, but for the team as well. We understand that we are at this turning point where we can make a difference. Recently, I shared with the team that I was very happy to see the Pope Leo XIV coming to France. He did great speech - a very great job, it was joyful and France was in joy. But just a few days later, we still have chaos here, with students in the streets and so on. I understand, of course, that this is a necessity for change toward a better civilization, better institutions, better education, and so on. That is my comment for France.

Sondjah: 16:49:48

Thank you for your observation and for what you are seeing. Yes, the Pope's visit was a breath of fresh air for many people. However, when that breath of fresh air leaves, they no longer have that to live into, and it is up to them to find that space for themselves in their relationship with Christ Michael and Mother Nebadonia. This is why it is important for you to consistently lead people to the light, so they do not depend on just one personality for their well-being. They must have that extended connection in order to move forward with their own personal lives. Thank you.

Kona: Sorry, this is Kona. I've got somebody knocking on my door, so I'm distracted. I'll be right back.
